Why Join KAAAV?

KAAAV members represent

Social services, community organizations, health care, education, recreation, faith community and senior citizens' facilities.

KAAAV meetings include

Guest speakers, round-table problem-solving, PAVR-O updates, facilitated discussions and information exchange.

Networking

Connect with other managers of volunteers and share best practices in volunteer management.

Learn about other agencies

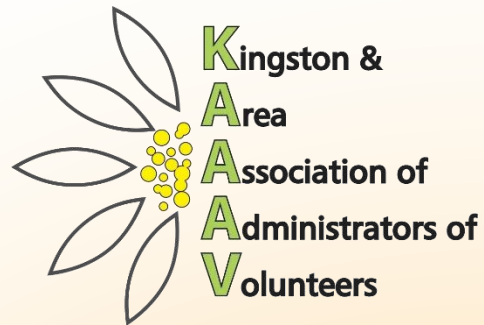

Meetings are held at a variety of locations—it's a unique opportunity to visit other member organizations.

Bursary opportunity

Your KAAAV membership entitles you to apply for bursary assistance, to attend related workshops and/or conferences.

Something for everyone

Whether you're just beginning your career in volunteer management or you're a seasoned pro, KAAAV offers support and camaraderie from others in the field.

KAAAV Mission Statement

KAAAV is a non-profit, multi-disciplinary membership association of managers of volunteers, who meet regularly to network and to access professional development.

KAAAV Vision Statement

To ensure that leaders of volunteers are recognized and valued as essential professionals in our community.

Core Values

We are a winning team of talented people, who benefit from shared resources. Our members are motivated and rewarded as they contribute to the association and to increasing long-term value for KAAAV.

We are fully committed to achieving success.

We strive to earn enduring credibility with others, which we believe is essential to long-term professional and business relationships.

We respect all our members and strive to ensure that opportunity for knowledge, participation and advancement is available.
